Judging Guidelines for internal school round

Confident delivery

To consider the auditory impact of the performance. Volume, pace, clarity of pronunciation in the student's natural accent make an engaging performance. The listeners must be pulled in and feel compelled to hear every word.

Understanding & Conveying the sentiment of the poem

The student should demonstrate an understanding of the poem, conveying this clearly to the audience, and interpreting it so that the poem is enhanced but not embellished.

Fluency & Accuracy

Overall performance

The way in which the performer presents himself/ herself will add to the recitation, including appearance, making eye contact with the audience, displaying confidence and using appropriate body language.
